

Earthquakes Partner with East Diablo Youth Soccer League for the 2009 Season

SAN JOSE, Calif. -- The San Jose Earthquakes announced today that the team has partnered with East Diablo Youth Soccer League (EDYSL).

All players, coaches, volunteers, and families from EDYSL can now receive the lowest ticket discount and are eligible for many unique experiences for games held at Buck Shaw Stadium (Santa Clara University) and the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

Discounted tickets are available starting as low as $15 (regularly $20) in the Goal View section and $25 (regularly $35) in the Sideline section for games in Santa Clara. For the game in Oakland against the Galaxy (6/20) EDYSL affiliates and teams can enjoy Plaza Level seats for $15 (regularly $20) and Lower Field Level Endzone seats for $25 (regularly $45). All orders (individuals and groups) must be presold through the EDYSL representative Anthony Perry to be eligible for the discount. If you are currently a season ticket holder you can exchange out you or your child's seats for the match to sit with the team.

As a partner club EDYSL's members will be invited to several premium experience including: post-game referee Q&As, pre-game chalk talks with the Earthquakes coaching staff and private warm-up session viewing, in stadium recognition of the club and teams, and on-field experiences for groups of 10 or more people for all home games (based on availability). Potential on-field experiences for EDYSL teams include: Dream Team (player escorts), ball kids, post game photo with the Quakes' mascot 'Q', Parade of Champions, halftime teams, and rally tunnel.

Don't miss out on a great opportunity to introduce yourself and your children to the world's stars in your backyard from March through October. Catch four former Santa Clara University standouts work to bring home the Earthquakes' third Major League Soccer championship to the Bay Area.
